WORK EXPERIENCE

GLISS (Global Incubator for Sustainability Services)

Founder

Paris, France

October 2024- Present

GLISS is grounded in the belief that sustainable systems depend on sustainable humans. We believe that meaningful progress requires consistent support for both individuals and organizations on their sustainability journeys. We also believe that sustainability is more than an aspiration or goal; it is a critical driver of long-term business resilience, economic success, and human well-being.

- GLISS's signature offering, GLISS+ence (GLISS Experience) reimagines sustainability leadership development by prioritizing depth over breadth. GLISS+ence is a thoughtfully designed, multi-day experience that integrates professional development with personal renewal. Each experience brings together a carefully curated group of peers for collaborative roundtables, interactive workshops, and meaningful dialogue, complemented by integrated wellness practices and sustainability principles embedded throughout the event's design. Hosted in inspiring locations, GLISS+ence replaces traditional panel-heavy conferences with intentional connection, real problem-solving, and practical impact.
- GLISS partners with clients to advance environmental and sustainability-related goals through a holistic, human-centered approach and range of services, including strategic advising, consulting, and environmental, social, and governance (ESG) education and trainings, delivered both in person and remotely.

GLISS is particularly well positioned to support multijurisdictional organizations navigating complex and often conflicting environmental and ESG-related legal and regulatory frameworks in the United States and abroad. Across all offerings, GLISS remains committed to helping individuals and organizations advance their environmental and sustainability objectives with integrity and continuity, regardless of shifting political or regulatory climates.

Paul, Weiss, LLP

Counsel, Sustainability & ESG Advisory Practice

Washington, DC

February 2023-October 2024

I helped grow and lead the regulatory and corporate components of the firm's former ESG Advisory Practice Group.

- Provided guidance on existing and emerging ESG regulations globally, including but not limited to, California's climate-related disclosure laws, the EU's CSRD, CSDDD, Deforestation Regulation, CBAM, and the US SEC's climate disclosure rules, as well as advising on related compliance issues and risks. Assisted clients looking to develop new, and expand existing, ESG programs, alongside advising on ESG-aligned business strategies, annual reports, and disclosures.
- Actively participated in the firm's pro bono program, often supervising, mentoring, and assisting associates with projects involving reproductive rights and immigration matters.
- Nominated for a firm teaching award, a process whereby associates anonymously nominate a senior attorney they feel was instrumental in their career development over the prior year.

Ropes & Gray, LLP
